This Is Worth Reading.

Leo F. Zelinski, of 68 Gibson street, Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I cured the most annoying cold sore I ever had, with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I applied this salve once a day for two days, when every trace of the sore was gone." Heals all sores. Sold under guarantee at S. W. Rowley's drug store. tf

Is it wise to be naughty when the mere dropping of the "y" will make naught of it?

OUR NERVES.

They May Be Calmed By Silence,
Solitude and Sleep, Says
One Writer.

In an article on "Nerves," published in Harper's Bazar the story is told of one of our noted scientists who went to Dresden to consult the famous specialist for broken down nerves. On hearing his symptoms the great physician said indifferently:

"Ach so? It is probable that you have—yes, all the gelehrten (learned) have neurasthenia naturally." The remedy suggested was "Play golf and go to Egypt. You can get Munich beer in Cairo, though it is disgustingly expensive there."

Silence, solitude and sleep are the sovereign remedies suggested for jagged nerves. Slight daily doses of the three "S's," it is claimed, will prevent a nervous breakdown and may be obtained by even the most busy people. But "All the learned men have neurasthenia" is at once a warning and a consolation to the brain worker. To "drive the machine" with skill and care is the problem of the successful American.

The writer of this article urges that we ought to thank God that we belong to the most nervous, restless, all pervading race the world has seen since the days of Julius Caesar. It is our "nerves" that make us what we are.

Bachelors.

Bachelors are cultivated in all large cities. They live in bachelor apartments and bungalows. They can be seen during the day in counting-houses and on the golf links, and in the evening at dinner parties and poker games.

Bachelors at one time were easily caught with almost any kind of bait and swallowed bait, hook, sinker and all often at the first throw. Now, however, a more foolish and overconfident specimen will poke his nose into a summer resort, when he is promptly landed.

They are gregarious in their habits, running in schools but they stand by each other, and it is very unusual to find a solitary one. Occasionally, however, a more foolish and overconfident specimen will poke his nose into a summer resort, when he is promptly landed.

Bachelors are, in reality, the bulwark of the nation. By not getting married they do not raise families. Families as we know, are constantly consuming our natural resources. Bachelors are, therefore, really providing more natural resources for the few. Their conduct, it will be seen, is thus quite unselfish.—Life.

Benefit of Gymnastics to Golfers.

On the subject of gymnastics and golf Capt. Hutchison, who holds a gymnastic appointment in the Coldstream Guards, reports: "While actually going through five hours daily work in the gymnasium I found that the heavy work was certainly detrimental to golf. But I think that it eventually proved of the greatest assistance, as it strengthened the muscles of the wrist and forearm, which play such an important part in all golfing strokes. I found it necessary to shorten my swing a little, and took to the overlapping or Vardon grip, two changes that certainly improved my game."—London Standard.

Where to Keep Your Eyes.

In walking about the Australian gold fields it is always advisable to keep your eyes on the ground. You can never tell when you may kick a nugget—or fall down a deserted shaft.

From Tarragulla, a district that has been very prolific in valuable nuggets, comes news of a remarkable find. A man walking across the fields picked up what he thought was a mushroom. It proved to be a nugget and contained $50 worth of gold. —London Daily News.

White Fly and San Jose Scale

For San Jose Scale on peach trees and white fly and other insect pests on orange trees, spray with "Schnarr's Insecticide." Kills the eggs, larvae and pupae of the white fly, cleans the fruit and foliage of sooty mold, mixes readily in cold water, does not clog the nozzle, has an agreeable odor, is harmless to face or eyes of the operator and the price is right. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory.
